

Join us on Feb. 13th at a Beach Near You! Pinellas says NO to Oil Drilling off Florida's coast!

What? Hands Across the Sand is a statewide, grassroots effort of Floridians, businesses & visitors to unite against oil drilling off Florida's shores. Join Hands at your local beach to protect Florida's coastline. Wear black to resemble an oil slick!

When? Saturday, Feb. 13th at the beach by 1:00PM
Join hands from 1:30 to 1:45PM

Where?

Gulfport Beach at the Casino Contact Dan Hodge 366-4086

Fort DeSoto Park North Beach Bird Sanctuary

Contact: Lorraine Margeson 415-4804

Pass-a-Grille Beach Contact Bernadette Ohran 896-1581

St Pete Beach Public Beach Contact Tim Martin 251-9979;

Tradewinds Contact Debra Davies 363-2263

Upham Beach Contact Jessica Respondek 813-380-8876

Treasure Island Beach between 104th and 112th Aves

Contact: Pat Kiesylis 421-2746

Redington Shores Beach Access County Park 18200 Gulf Blvd

Contact Doug Hickman 519-4158/Joe Illingworth 560-3605

Indian Rocks Beach 1700 Gulf Blvd Contact Todd Plumlee

866-976-0228

Lassing Park 18th Ave S St Pete

Contact Dorian Turner

dtturner2010@rocketmail.com

Clearwater Beach At Pier 60 Contact Lisa Hinton 712-2312;

Anita Stewart 813-312-229260

Why? Our Florida legislators and the U.S. Congress are being courted by big oil lobbyists anxious to open Florida's state and federal waters to oil rigs starting just 3 miles off our shores. Even with the most advanced technology, spills and accidents can and do happen. Our beaches, marine ecosystem and tourist based economy are all at risk!

For more information: www.handsacrossthesand.com

Follow us on Twitter: NoDrillFL

Cathy Harrelson 727-415-8805, cathy_bam@earthlink.net

Pat Kiesylis 727-421-2746, goodpat@tampabay.rr.com

Tampa Bay Beaches Chamber of Commerce, Suncoast League of Cities, Sirata Beach Resort, Tradewinds Island Resort, MoveOn

